Re: United States v. Yehezkel Elia

Dear Ms. Dunne:

In addition to the items we requested last week, we respectfully request that you also provide us the following items:

1. The cell phone number or numbers for Harrij Zherka, known as "Lily" during the period 1999-2003. We believe that Lily embezzled funds from Sneaker Mania, Inc. by writing checks on the Sneaker Mania checking account payable to various accomplices and by sharing the proceeds with the accomplices. She used the rubber stamp signature for Yehezkel Elia. We would like her cell phone number in order to establish that Lily had a connection with these various accomplices.

2. I am informed that the compact disc you provided us is in "Tiff" format. If you have the data in Excel format, we would appreciate that. If not, please provide it in PDF.

Yesterday, we discussed the effort required by the government to comply with our request for I.R.S. data concerning Paul Lenok. We believe that the I.R.S.'s requirement that paid preparers use an ID number implies that the I.R.S. maintains a file on paid preparers and that the information we requested may be located in that file. If that is true, the effort you described may be avoided. Accordingly, we renew that request. As I explained, the relevance of the se requests to the defense is that the information is needed to reply to a potential argument by the government that the defense could have located and presented evidence that Lenok was negligent or that he acted fraudulently in the preparation of other taxpayers' tax returns prepared by Lenok. As I stated, AUSA Stanley J. Okula made such an argument in the government's rebuttal summation in United States v. Josephberg last year. I enclose the relevant portion of the Josephberg transcript.

Cynthia K. Dunne, Esq.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Re: US v Elia and Elyaho
07 Cr 543 (KMK)

Dear Mr. Scharf:

This letter responds to your various recent discovery requests.

Paul Lenok

This Office has attempted to determine if there is any information relevant to your request for information pertaining to dead accountant and tax preparer Paul Lenok and his clients (requests 1, 2, 5 and 6 of your May 7 letter). I have been advised that the IRS only maintains computerized preparer information for three years and that it does not cross-reference its audits, correspondence or witness interviews by tax preparer. In addition, retrieval of Lenok's records is further complicated because apparently he did not file returns using his tax preparer identification number. Accordingly, retrieval and review of Lenok's client documents -- that may or may not have responsive information -- could take weeks and possibly longer. Since neither the dead accountant nor his other clients are on trial and since Lenok, obviously, will not be testifying, we believe that any such information would not be relevant. Accordingly, absent a court order, the IRS will not be retrieving and reviewing the transcripts and underlying tax records of the 700 individual and corporate taxpayers whose tax returns were prepared by Lenok. If you believe that Mr. Lenok authored correspondence that is relevant to your defense or that he engaged in conduct that is material to your defense, then I suggest that you contact his other clients and/or subpoena his files from his representatives.

Juror Tax Return Information

This Office will not be providing you with tax return information pertaining to potential jurors. If you have specific questions about a juror's potential bias, then those questions should be included in a proposed voir dire. As you well know, defendants were once entitled to an indication (simply a "yes" or "no") whether prospective jurors had been the subject of an audit or tax investigation (through the former version of 26 U.S.C. Section 6103(h)(5)), but they no longer are, by virtue of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-34, effective August 1997), which deleted that provision.

Former Special Agent Herbert Eis

You have requested contact information for former Special Agent Herbert Eis. We have contacted Mr. Eis and he has not authorized us to provide you with his personal contact information. If you are looking for Mr. Eis in order to serve a trial subpoena, then we may be able to assist you by arranging for him to receive a subpoena, however, as you know Mr. Eis no longer works for the Internal Revenue Service. Please provide us with further information so that we can determine if we can assist you.

Ms. Zherka

We will not be providing you with personal information regarding Ms. Zherka. If you provide us with specific instances of alleged theft and/or embezzlement, then we will investigate the matter, however, without cause shown, we will not facilitate a fishing expedition into the details of her personal life.

Government Exhibits

Before sending out the Government Exhibits for scanning I offered you and Mr. Vita with the choice of having the documents in either "pdf" or "tiff" format. In addition, before sending the exhibits out, I confirmed with both you that you would accept the exhibits in "tiff" format. Accordingly, if at this point you would like to have the documents converted into another format, then you should have your client arrange for such.

Very truly yours,

The PTIN cannot be used in place of the employer identification number (EIN) of the tax preparation firm.

Note. You are not required to get a PTIN. If you prefer, you may continue to use your SSN on tax returns you prepare. However, you must use either an SSN or PTIN on returns you are paid to prepare. Do not write "PTIN applied for" in the Paid Preparer's Use Only section of the return. Certain states and localities may not accept the PTIN as satisfying a requirement for a preparer identification number on their tax returns.

How To Apply

- Online. Request a PTIN online at www.irs.gov. Click on Tax Professionals then on the link for e-services. Once you have registered, follow the online instructions to have a PTIN assigned.

- By fax. Complete Form W-7P and fax it to 1-631-687-3850.

Regardless of how you applied, you will receive your PTIN by mail only. If you have not heard from the IRS within 6 weeks after applying for your number, you may call 1-800-829-1040 to check on the status of your application.

Privacy Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Section 3710 of the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 allows the use of a PTIN. If you request a PTIN, you must give us the information requested on this form; we need it to properly respond to your request. Under section 6109, you must provide your social security number on Form W-7P. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. If you do not provide all of the requested information, we may be unable to process your request.

Rebuttal Summation - Mr. Okula

074HJOSms

1 motive was? "I just wanted to help the guy out. I was stupid.
2 I made a mistake. I knew the net operating losses were wrong.
3 I didn't think we would get caught. But I did it. I did it,
4 anyway."

5 Usually, in cases where you have cooperating
6 witnesses, you have defense lawyers beating them up because
7 they admit so many other crimes that we're up here defending
8 them by saying: "Forget the other crimes here. What else did
9 he do?"

10 They had a chance to go out and look to see if he did
11 anything wrong with anyone else's return. You didn't see
12 anything else. The other thing that he got in trouble with --
13 and it was all cleared up -- was the thing with his own return,
14 where the IRS made a mistake.

15 So what were Fox's motives? You saw him testify.
16 He's a pretty strong-willed guy. You think we cowed him into 17 pleading guilty? That's a pretty powerful charge by 18 Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Scharf. What they're saying, in essence,
19 is that we suborned perjury, that we would knowingly put 20 somebody on the stand to lie to frame Richard Josephberg? I
21 mean, who is Richard Josephberg? Is he Leona Helmsley? Am I
22 going to get my name on the front page of the Law Journal or 23 The New York Times if he gets convicted? Am I going to throw
24 away a 17-year career in the Justice Department just to get
25 another tax evader? That's what they want you to believe.

PETITION FOR RELIEF FROM THE SEIZURE

August 17, 2001

U.S. Customs Service
Director, Fines, Penalties & Forfeitures
Building 77, Room 200
JFK Airport
Jamaica, NY 11430

Dear Director,

I am requesting relief from the forfeiture of my $42,000, based on the following.

In 1993 and 1994, when I was experiencing business difficulties, my mother lent me $100,000. My mother, a citizen and resident of the State of Israel, keeps her savings in United States currency due to the political and economic climate in Israel. She advanced me the money in United States currency as explained in the accompanying affidavit. This affidavit was prepared for and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service during an examination of my 1994 tax return.

In January of this year my mother informed me that my brother, Yoel, was experiencing severe financial hardships. She requested that I repay all or part of the money she lent me several years ago so that she could lend it to my brother. She requested that the money be returned in U.S. currency. I immediately began to accumulate all the funds I could in order to repay my mother.

I was able to accumulate the money through two ways. A residential building that I own was recently fully occupied and gave me cash flow of approximately $3,500 a month or $25,000 over the seven month period. I informed my mother that in my annual visit to her I would bring $25,000. My mother was dismayed and told me that my brother was at risk of losing his home if she couldn't give him $50,000. I then took whatever funds I could from my driving school, Center for Safety, as an advance.

I object to the U.S. Customs Service taking my money based on the fact that prior to my arrival to the airport I was unaware of the reporting requirement for taking $10,000 in U.S. currency out of the United States. When the officer from

JFK-FPP/ALH/280412-35

U.S. Customs Service

the U.S. Customs service approached me and had me sign the form saying I was carrying less than $10,000 in U.S. currency, I was flustered. I was worried about missing my flight. I thought that if I told the officer that I was carrying $44,000 in U.S. currency, he would detain me and cause me to miss my flight. I had no one to leave the money with. I foolishly thought that if I signed the form, I would not miss my flight.

I would like to point out that I did not try to hide the money but I carried the money in my carryon bag. I was travelling to Israel, where due to tight security measures, it is guaranteed that hand luggage will be examined. I believe this shows that it was not my intent to break any law.

Based on the above facts and my sincere promise that I will never take an amount greater than $10,000 in U.S. currency out of this country, I respectfully request that my money be returned to me. It is also very important that the money be returned to me as soon as possible. My brother had promised his creditor payment in July. As soon as the U.S. Customs Service releases my money, I will wire transfer the funds to my mother in Israel.

Respectfully submitted,

Yehezkel Israel Elia
